MISS MINNIE DISWIDDER, of Hustonville, was here Wednesday. She denies the report that she is an applicant for postmaster of her town.

MR. WILLIAM DUNKERVANT, of the Highland section, has moved his family to Pittsburgh, where he will be connected with the Laurel Coal Co.

MR. E. P. WOODS, of Stanford, was the guest of his three charming daughters at the M. F. C., Friday and Saturday.—Millersburg cor. Bourbon News.

MR. C. P. WARE, of Somerset, was on yesterday's North-bound train. He informed us that the C. S. would soon begin the building of new shops at that place.

HAMILTON ADAMS, Frank Adams, John Adams, Thomas Plummer and Fred Ollis, all of the Gosben section, left with their families for Palmer, Ill., Tuesday, to reside.

An elegant reception was to have been given Miss Annie Tribble at Paris last night, by Mrs. Wm. Board, but the death of her grand father necessitated her return home and a postponement.

POSTAL CLERK CHARLES H. HAYDEN passed a creditable examination before Supt. Harrover, of Louisville, here Wednesday. He threw 800 in 20 minutes without making an error and was given 100 by that gentleman. This should promote the clever young man.

MEASLES.—Black measles are raging at Middleburg and a number of schools in that section have been compelled to close.

WHILE rendering big hard the other day Mr. George B. Cooper had the misfortune to lose about 75 pounds by letting it scorch.

J. L. BACER adm'r. of Dr. J. P. Flannagan, dec'd, will sell at public sale in Stanford, on Dec. 14 (county court) at 11 o'clock, 10 shares of stock in Hustonville bank.

WILL MOVE.—Mrs. A. A. McKinney has rented the handsome new store room of Judge J. W. Alcorn on Lancaster street and will move her stock of millinery into it soon.

THE L. & N. received 36 car loads of export cattle from Paris Tuesday, which had to be taken to Norton, Va., at the rate of 40 miles per hour. It took two engines to pull them.

CHARLEY STEWART, the painter, says that times must be getting better for Mr. Moses Elmore had him put in a window light in the back of his store that has been out for 20 years.

THERE is a regular card game in social circles here. Each and every are the favorite games, but it is necessary most of the lovers of cards can be induced to play a social game of poker.

SETTLED UP.—Sheriff T. D. Newland sent the auditor a check for $13,506.06 Tuesday, balance due for taxes of this county, having sent about $8,000 before. He is expecting his quietus to-day.

THIEVES entered Tanner Bros. store at McKinney Wednesday night and got away with about $100 worth of clothing, watches and notions. Entrance was effected by boring through the front door.

WANTED!—5,000 turkeys and 2,000 geese; also chickens, ducks, eggs, hides, furs, feathers and ginseng. Write us for prices. Car lots of live poultry a specialty. H. B. Northcott & Co., Lancaster, Ky.

HEAVY WITHDRAWALS forced the Missouri National Bank of Kansas City to close its doors. None of the stock is owned here but holders in the Metropolitan National of the same city are uneasy, though the report is that the failure will not affect it.

PARDONED.—Shortly after his arrival at the penitentiary, Gov. Bradley pardoned Sam Tuttle, who had in jail here so long awaiting the action of the court of appeals in his case. He was convicted of aiding and abetting in the killing of Speed Williams in Laurel.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.—Deputy Sheriff M. G. Reynolds, who was here Wednesday, tells us that Frank Martin accidentally shot himself in the bowels while attempting to reload his pistol at Eubanks a few days previous. He is in a precarious condition and the chances are against his recovery.

WINTERCAME in with the mercury down to 14 and it has hovered thereabout ever since, Wednesday registering 18° and yesterday 16°. The bitter cold has caused much suffering, as no one was prepared for it after the long warm spell. The signal service predicts a slowly rising temperature.

GEESSE SCARCE.—Jack and Lige Beasley tell us that they attempted to fill an order for a car-load of geese for H. B. Northcott & Co., of Lancaster, but found very few in the county. They failed to make a purchase and are satisfied that Lincoln county people hold their geese as close to their hearts as they do their children if the price they ask is any indication.

HE FORGOT.—Mr. S. H. Shanks had a regular "hog killing" time the other day. After killing and scraping a dozen or more nice porkers he had them hung up to cool out. By some means or other he forgot to have the entrails removed and next morning when he thought of it the hogs were still frozen. They had to be thawed out before their insides could be removed and the trouble he was put to can be easily imagined than told.

New barrel of Pure New Orleans Molasses. Higgins & McKinney.

Big stock of Holiday Goods to open next week. Warren & Shanks.

You will please call and settle your account with W. H. Wearen & Co. at once.

MR. A. G. HUFFMAN, the dairyman, who is in position to know, says there are 62 families in town who sell milk when they have the opportunity.

REMEMBER the entertainment at the College this, Friday afternoon, at 2 o'clock. The program is a good one and all who go will be welcomed and entertained.

ENTERTAINMENT.—The Caledonian Society will give a free show at the court-house Saturday night, 12th, to which everybody is invited. Mr. Jack Beasley says an unusually interesting program will be presented.

HELD.—Louis Lynn, who killed Tom Howard, another Negro, near Halls Gap, had his examining trial yesterday, when a very damaging case was made out against him, resulting in his being held to the grand jury, which convenes in special session on the 5th inst, without bail.

GOOD MAN.—Mr. L. C. Hulburd, who is taking a map of the town for a New York firm, and who wouldn't let the Harrodsburg boys run him, is proving himself a good man to have around. Wednesday he discovered Mrs. Nancy B. Woner's house on fire and as quick as lightning he got to the top of it and extinguished the flames before much damage was done. It is not known how the roof caught.

FATALLY BURNED.—Sammy, the three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Hubble, of the McKinney section, was fatally burned a few days ago. He was playing with his sisters when his clothes caught from the grate and before assistance arrived he was burned to such an extent that he died Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Hubble and wife were away from home at the time, but arrived soon afterward to see their boy writhing in agony. Jennie and Bessie, sisters of the unfortunate little fellow, did all in their power to extinguish the flames but had it not been for the cook, an old colored woman, he would have been burned to a crisp. The little body was laid to rest in the cemetery at McKinney yesterday morning after appropriate services at the grave by Revs. Grinstead and Davidson. Mr. and Mrs. Hubble have the sympathy of their many friends in this, their hour of trouble.

BARBAROUS.—Mr. S. V. Rowland, of Danville, tells us that 50 years ago, he witnessed the trial of a Negro slave named, Isaac, the property of Wm. Morse, of Madison county, for the killing of another Negro. A verdict of manslaughter was found and the punishment fixed at 39 lashes on his bare back and to be branded in the palm of the hand with a red hot iron. Mr. Rowland, then a boy of 15, saw both punishments inflicted and to this day he says he can see the Negro writhe as with his hand tied palm upwards from a plow handle he saw the hot metal fry itself to the bone. For curiosity's sake the other day while in Richmond, Mr. Rowland examined the records and found that his recollection was fully corroborated by them. This inhuman punishment was result of the law which made the confinement of a slave in the penitentiary impossible. The Spanish inquisition could have hardly conceived anything more horrible.

THE STEWART HOME.—At the invitation of Dr. J. Q. A. Stewart, who now owns and runs as a Sanitarium, the Kentucky Military Institute property, six miles from Frankfort, Mrs. Wm. Cheatham, Mrs. D. W. Yandell and the writer, members of the board of trustees of the Schools of Reform, visited the beautiful place this week to investigate its eligibility for the institutions. We found it a magnificent property and well adapted for our purpose. Dr. Stewart's hospitality and kindness of heart is proverbial and he made the trustees enjoy their visit greatly. He and his son, who is also a doctor, have in charge some 30 or 40 epileptic and weak minded children, who are being improved and taught many useful trades. These children call the old gentleman "papa" and seem devoted to him. He was superintendent of the Feeble Minded Institute for years, having been appointed by Gov. McCreary, and made the institution one of the grandest charities in the State. We are indebted to him, his excellent wife and popular son for a very pleasant stay with them, as well as for a full insight into the splendidly equipped institution, which has nearly every modern appliance for the comfort of its patients.

CHURCH CHIMES.

—Eldrs. J. T. Sharrard and J. S. Kendrick, of Danville, will exchange pulpits Sunday morning.

—The Christian church at Hustonville has given the rent of its parsonage next year to Mrs. W. L. Williams, wife of its deceased pastor.

—Rev. Paul V. Bomar has tendered his resignation as pastor of the Baptist church at Versailles to take charge of a church at Marion, Ala.

—Rev. J. W. Lynch, of the Baptist church of Danville, has declined a flattering call to the pastorate of the Walnut Hills church, Cincinnati.

MT. VERNON, ROCKCASTLE CO.

—Scarlet fever is prevailing among the children.

—Prof. L. M. Scroggs and family report a delightful visit among friends in Danville Thanksgiving week.

—New pupils are entering the College every week. Many teachers will come here to attend school.

—Dr. Peyton, of Stanford, was called upon last week to visit Misses Ida May and Elizabeth Adams, who have been quite ill.

—The fruit tree agent is reaping a rich harvest. Mr. Elsie Bullock, Jr., who delivered large orders at Wildie and Livingston, praises their citizens for promptness in calling for the trees.

—Many complain of having lost large quantities of pork during the recent warm weather. The present intensely cold weather is very auspicious for the work and butchering is the order of the day.

—Messrs. Tyree & Parrott may well be proud of their work upon the new Baptist church, which is nearly finished. The bell is here and ready for use and soon the sound of two church bells instead of one will reverberate from the hill tops.

—The Sunday school of the Christian church will have a Christmas tree at the court-house Christmas Eve. All are invited to attend and put presents on it for friends. At the Presbyterian church also a tree decorated with presents for young and old will gladden many a heart. Do not forget God's poor while rejoicing over the birth of His dear Son.

—Miss Maytie Weber entertained a number of her young friends last Friday evening with a delightful party; refreshments were served at 9 o'clock after which all enjoyed that most pleasant and instructive pastime, playing charades. Among those from a distance present were: Dr. John M. Williams, of Louisville, and Mr. R. L. Joplin, of Wilmore, two handsome schoolmates of the lovely hostess.

—The party at Mr. D. N. Williams last Tuesday evening was highly enjoyed by all who attended. Although taken by "storm" Mrs. Cleo Brown, the ever affable hostess, was equal to the occasion, while the learned young lawyer, Mr. R. G. Williams, laid aside for the while the erudite professional air and was a boy again with ready wit and courteous grace making all feel at home.

—Dr. John M. Williams is the guest of Mr. J. J. Williams. Miss Polly Owens, of Barbourville, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Jones. Little Jesse Forrester died of membranous croup last Friday night. Her remains were taken to Knoxville for interment. All the members of Mr. John Marler's family have been ill, and one child died. Elder Omer preached four sermons while here. Several members of the family of Mr. S. H. Martin, Moretown, have been quite ill. Mr. R. L. Joplin, of Wilmore, gladdened the hearts of the homefolks with a visit last week.
